

An adult must always watch children around water.

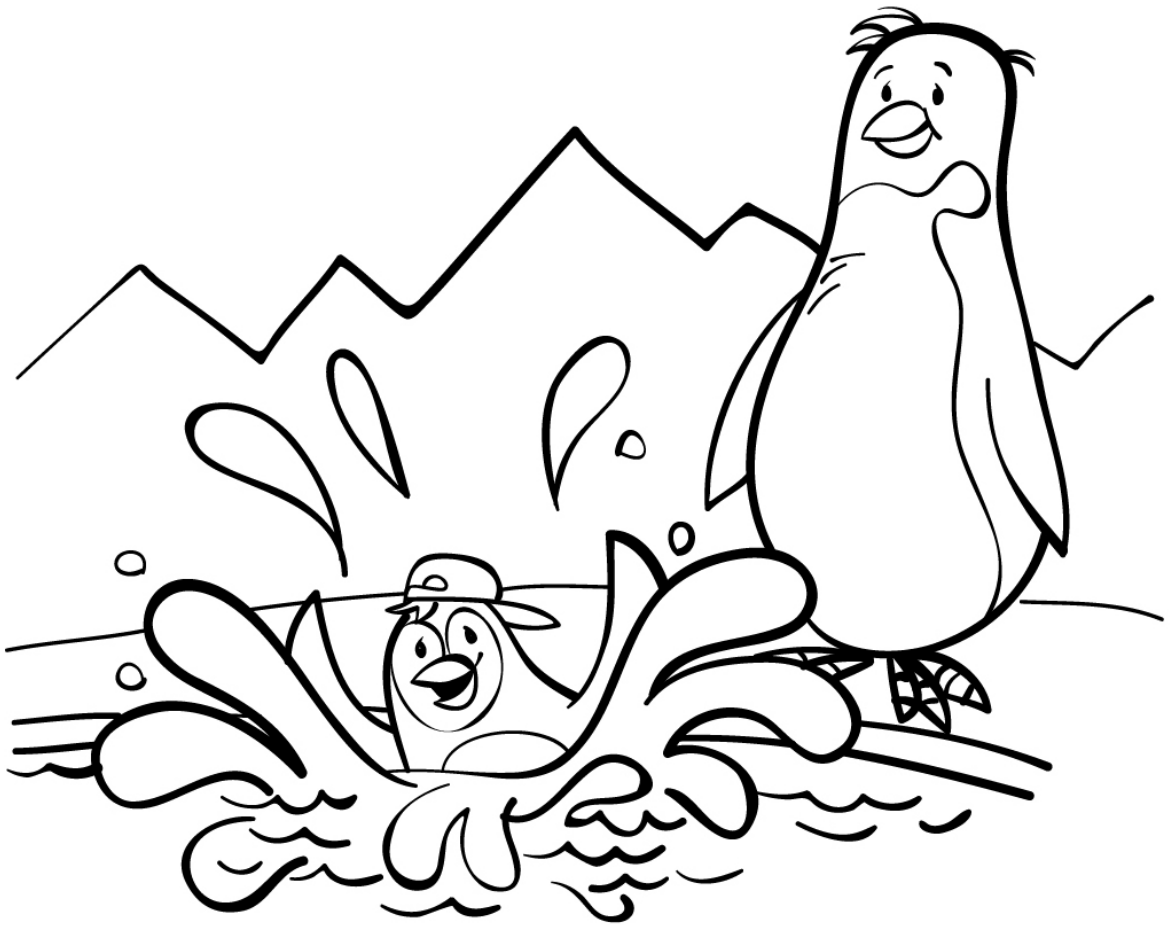

Trace and write the letters Aa. "A" is for adult. The adult is the Big Daddy Penguin. Color the water splashes to show how much fun Big Daddy Penguin and Parker the Penguin have in the water.

Aa Aa

A is for Adult

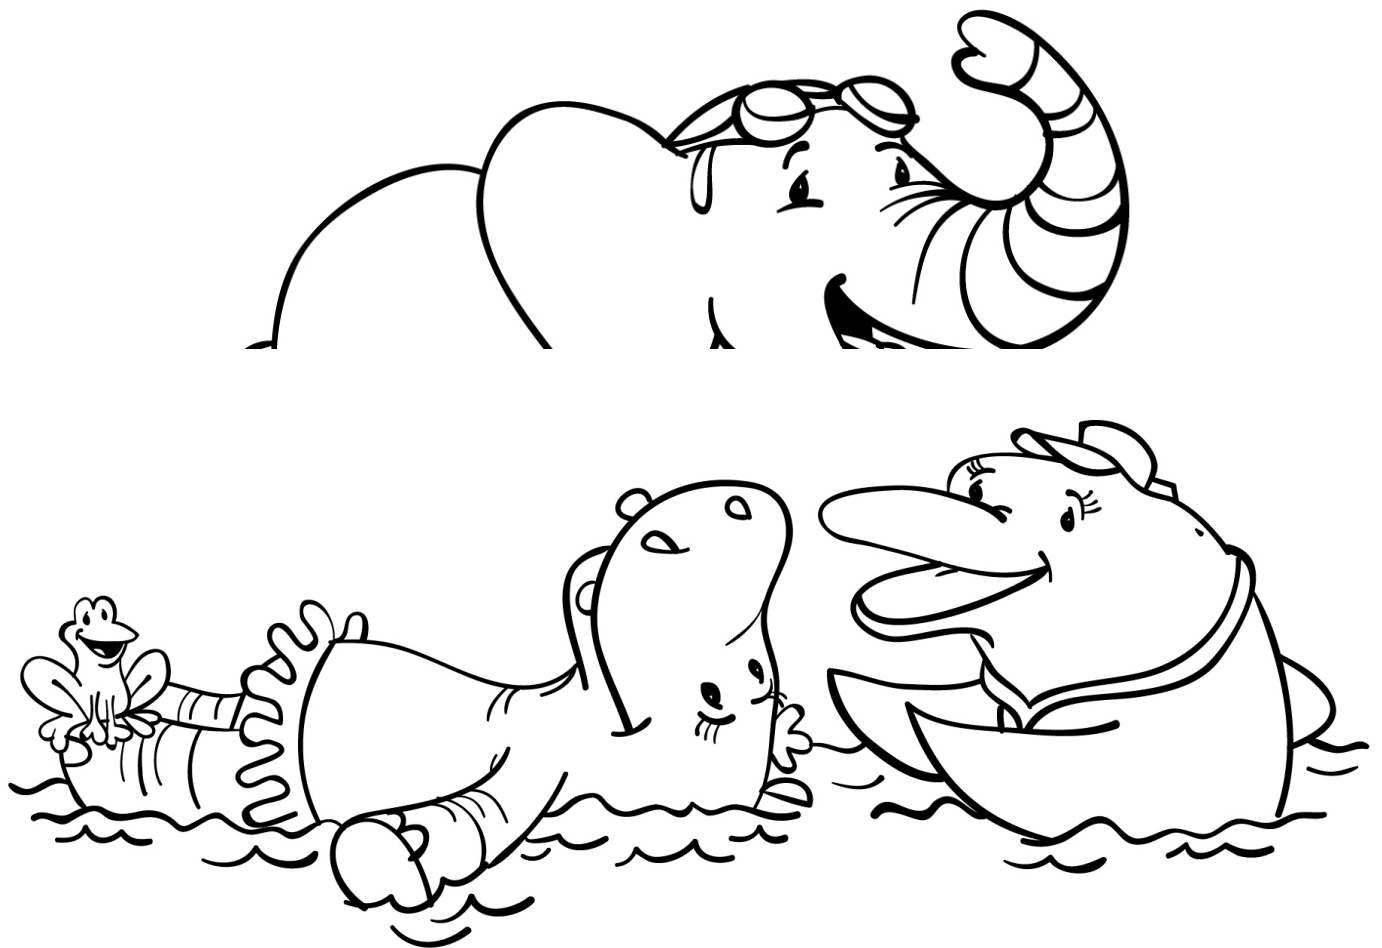

Barriers must be placed between children and the water.

Trace and write the letters Bb. "B" is for barriers. A pool fence and a door lock are examples of barriers. Color Elliot the Elephant and the barrier that keeps him from the water.

Adults and children need classes like First Aid and swimming lessons.

Trace and write the letters Cc. "C" is for classes. Hanna the Hippo takes swimming lessons with Daisy the Dolphin to teach her to swim and be safe around water.

Pool drains can be dangerous to all swimmers.

Trace and write the letters Dd. "D" is for drains. Pool drains can trap a swimmer's body or clothes underwater and should be avoided while swimming.

Dd Dd

D is for Drains

